

Flying Free

Songs of Love, Light and Hope for Relaxation and Meditation.

Flying Free is a classical crossover recording bringing together the angelic voice of soprano Tania de Jong with the virtuosic genius of pianist, composer and arranger Anthony Barnhill. Also appearing on the album is one of Australia's most acclaimed violinists Zoe Black and baritone Jonathan Morton. The album has been recorded with some of Australia's leading musicians performing originals and some of the greatest music and songs of all-time.

The album includes originals Flying Free and The Everlasting Light with compositions by Barnhill and lyrics by de Jong. There are also reinventions of some gorgeous standards including Shenandoah and Danny Boy and sacred songs including two versions of Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus and the Yiddish prayer Avinu Malkeinu. This incantation seeks compassion and peace and an end to war and famine, hate and oppression. Very timely in a world that is ever more divided.

The recording features beautiful arrangements of songs by Schubert, Handel, Caccini, Dvorak, Lehar, Korngold and Gershwin and folks. There is a divine and timeless nature to these incredible works and Barnhill has created some magical re-inventions.

Tania will be donating 10 percent of the CD sales to Creativity Australia's With One Voice program.

"Tania's music touched my heart so deeply. I feel blessed that I experienced Tania live and her song 'Flying Free' brings tears to my eyes every time I listen to it." - Heike Khemka
